

VULNER

WEBINAR: 29 June 2020
15.00–16.00 (Berlin time)

COVID-19 AND BORDER CLOSURES: How are Vulnerable Migrants Affected?

ORGANIZER: Population Europe & Luc Leboeuf | Project Coordinator VULNER

CHAIR: Marie-Claire Foblets | Director, Department of Law & Anthropology,
Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology

SPEAKERS:

Luc Leboeuf | Head of Research Group, Department of Law & Anthropology,
Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology
EU Border Closures. Which Effects on Vulnerable Migrants?

Jessica Schultz | Postdoctoral Researcher, Law Faculty, University of Bergen
The Relocation of Unaccompanied Minors from Greek Refugee Camps

Sabrina Marchetti | Associate Professor, Sociology, Ca' Foscari University of Venice
Migrant Caregivers' Multiple Vulnerabilities: The Italian Case

Delphine Nakache | Associate Professor, Law Faculty, University of Ottawa
Health and Safety of Vulnerable Migrants in the Time of COVID-19:
A Look at the Canadian Situation

Biao Xiang | Professor, Social Anthropology, Oxford University
Concluding Thoughts

Following the five presentations, the speakers will take your questions!

Register via LimeSurvey: <https://bit.ly/2ZzBPYz>

The link to the webinar will be provided upon registration.

This webinar is organized as part of the VULNER project (www.vulner.eu), which has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 870845.